

Beam

This is our standard beam. The common use is for supporting hog & cattle slats. It is designed to set in wall pockets (min. depth of 4") and on columns (min. surface 6").

This beam is also used when a "cover" is needed on underground concrete storage tanks. Solid lids are set on to create the "cover".

